GCR Publication: Indonesia: New case-handling procedure simplifies resolutions for the commission

We are pleased to share an insightful article authored by our Partner Lia Alizia and Associate Mutiara Handaniah, published in collaboration with Global Competition Review (GCR). The article discusses the latest updates in Indonesian competition law, focusing on Indonesian Competition Commission (KPPU) Regulation No. 2 of 2023. This new regulation streamlines case handling procedures, particularly for addressing monopolistic practices and unfair business competition.
