

Makarim & Taira S. Partners Recognized at AsiaIP Awards

We are honored and appreciative that, for the third consecutive year, our distinguished Partners, Lia Alizia and Norma Mutalib, have been recognized as leading IP experts by Asia IP Magazine. This year, we are also pleased to announce that our newest Partner, Reagan Roy Teguh, has received this recognition for the first time.

Asia IP, a respected authority in Asian intellectual property, relies on its expert judges and global corporate counsel professionals to select and vote for the top contenders.

This accolade reflects our dedication to excellence in intellectual property. We continue to provide value-driven services and appreciate your ongoing support.
