

Makarim & Taira S. shortlisted for Firm of the Year in Asialaw Awards 2021

As a firm, our mission is to provide the most effective and value-added solutions and advice to our clients and to become a reliable and trustworthy partner for them in their journey to accomplish their business goals. This mission has also allowed us to be consistently recognized by reputable international legal directories and publications for many years now. This time, we are delighted to announce that Makarim & Taira S. has once again been shortlisted as Firm of the Year in Asialaw Awards 2021 for Indonesia and we certainly have our valuable clients and amazing teams to thank for this recognition. May it spark many more accomplishments as we move forward through excellence.
