COVID-19 Pandemic Regulations in Finance Tax and Import Sectors

Following the nation's emergency, the Indonesian government has issued sets of regulations and policies in various sectors in order to control and mitigate the adverse impacts of the pandemic. This advisory discusses regulations and policies to stimulate finance and tax sectors and relaxation for importing medical goods and supplies.

Co-authored by Vincent Ariesta Lie, Yohanes Kevin, Rininta Shafira, Anastasia Anggita, and Putri Rachelia Azzura, please read the complete advisory from the link below.