Makarim & Taira S. is shortlisted for
Indonesia Firm of The Year

Lia Alizia is shortlisted for
Indonesia Lawyer of The Year

Makarim & Taira S. Shortlisted as Firm of the Year in Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific Awards 2021

The Firm is continuing its remarkable achievements this year with the recognition of our work in the #disputeresolution practice area by Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific Awards 2021. These awards celebrate the leading litigators and most impactful disputes across the Asia-Pacific region according to information captured in the submissions for the latest edition of Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific. The shortlists are the culmination of months of research, analyzing hundreds of submissions, surveying thousands of referees and interviewing hundreds of lawyers by Benchmark Litigation teams.

We proudly announce that Makarim & Taira S. is shortlisted in the Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific Awards 2021, in the Firm of the Year category. Additionally, our Managing partner, Lia Alizia, is nominated as Lawyer of the Year in the Indonesian jurisdiction.

This proves once again that despite all the unprecedented challenges, our focus, determination and relentless effort to provide our clients the highest quality of work, still allow us to achieve excellence. We thank our great teams, our loyal clients, our networks, and the entire legal community for their continuous support and confidence in us.
