

The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Enforcement of Merger Control Rules in Indonesia

The Indonesian Commission for the Supervision of Business Competition (“KPPU”) has made several adjustments to the enforcement of merger control rules. They temporarily suspend all law enforcement activities, including notification filing and notification reviewing, until 6 April 2020. KPPU also announces that any consultation services and reports of violations of anti-competition law can be submitted through infokom@kppu.go.id and pengaduan@kppu.go.id respectively.

Then how do the adjustments affect the enforcement of merger control rules? Read the complete advisory co-authored by Lia Alizia, Jonathan Toni Tjenggoro, Budhy Apriastuti Evita, and Golden Mandala by clicking the button below.
